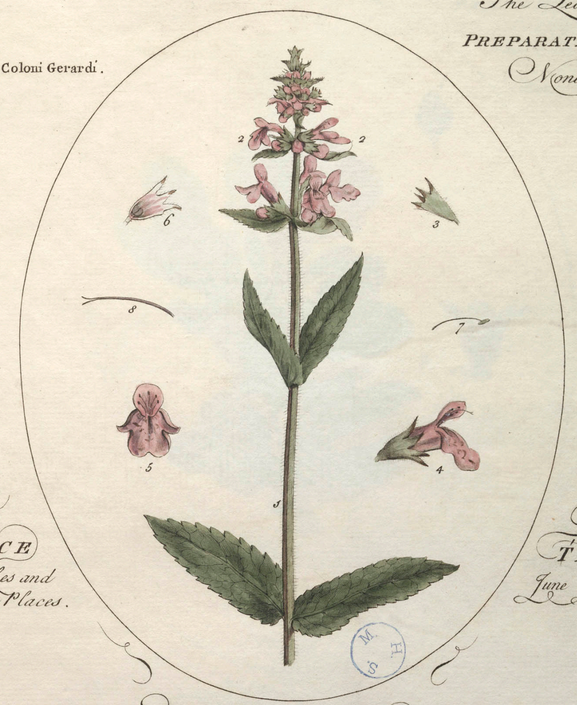
CLOWNS ALL-HEAL.
or WOUND-WORT.

NAMES

A
G
L. Panax Coloni Gerardi.
I
G
F
S
D

PARTS USED.
The Leaves.

PREPARATIONS.
None.



PLACE
Ditches and Watery Places.

TIME
June & July

DESCRIPTION.

The Roots Spread their fibres in the Earth, having knobs growing in many Places on them. The Stalk (1) is a brownish Green, and Square. The Leaves are Sharp at the End and broad at the Stalk (where they Join without Footstalks) they are a full Green, growing darker as they rise Higher on the Stalk. The Cup (3) is Cut into five parts halfway down, the Sharp ends are a dark brown all these are hairy The Flowers (2) grow in circles on the top of the Stalk being of a fine Purple marbled with white, the inside of the tube is an intermediate Colour, between Purple and white. There are four Chives, of a dark Purple, with Black Summits, and a light green Farina. The Style is of the same Colour. in the Cups are four Seeds, that is open'd at 6. (3) a Calix. (4) a Flower Sideways, (5) another in Front. (6) the Calix open'd and the Seeds, which are black when ripe. (7) the Chive and Summit. (8) the Style. all these are Magnified.

VIRTUES

This Herb beaten into a Cataplasm with Hogs Lard is accounted good to heal fresh Wounds.

T. Sheldrake delin. C.H. Hemerick Sculp.